What is Tense?

Tense: is the form of the verb which denotes, what we did in the past, what we do in the present and what will we do in the future.

We went to school yesterday. (Shows what did we do in the past)

We go to school every day (shows what do we do in the present)

We will go to school tomorrow. (shows that what will we do in the future)

Note: The word Tense according to dictionary has the following meanings.

a- When it is used as noun, it means time

e.g. which tense do you study to day.

b- When it is used as verb, it means to makes someone unhappy.

e.g. Zaid tenses his mother.

c- When it is used as adjective, it means unhappy.

e.g. you look tense to day.

d- When it is used as adverb, it means sadly

e.g. He answered my question tensely.

According to voice Tenses are divided into two types.

i. Active voice

ii. Passive voice

i. Active voice: active voice is the form of a verb in which subject preforms the action. or active voice in which the doer of the action is the subject of a sentence.

Examples:

Ali bought a chair.

He writes a letter.

ii. Passive voice: passive voice is a voice in which subject dose not perform an action. or A voice in which subject is the receiver of an action.

Examples:

A chair was bought.

A letter is written.
