This block contains a large green rectangular area designed for writing. It features six horizontal dashed lines, each ending in a small black dot on the right side. At the top right of this area, there are three icons: a purple circle with a white center, a blue question mark, and a teal house icon. Below these icons, there are several horizontal lines of small black dots, arranged in a pattern that suggests a grid or a series of rows for text entry. The dots are organized into groups, with some groups being longer than others, creating a structured layout for handwriting practice.
